DETAILED ACTION

Response to Argument

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 9-11, filed on February 28, 2005, with respect to claims 1-15 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-15 has been withdrawn.

Reasons for allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 1, 8 and 15, the previous art of record teaches of a portable device comprising a receiver and a control unit; computer program and a method of allocating resources to a communication channel between a transmitter and a receiver; comprising the steps of: at the receiver, measuring a performance parameter of the communication channel; if the performance parameter of the communication channel indicates that the performance of the communication link is satisfactory (c) if the performance parameter of the communication channel indicates that the performance of the communication link is unsatisfactory, then comparing, in the receiver, a signal strength indicator of a communication signal from the transmitter to a threshold; if the signal strength indicator of the communication signal at the receiver satisfies the threshold; and if the signal strength indicator of the communication signal at the receiver fails to satisfy the threshold, then performing at least one of increasing the transmission power or reducing the user rate.

The previous art of record fails to teach, in the case of unsatisfactory communication link, if the signal strength indicator of the communication signal at the
